Virginia Beach, VA – The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has awarded Klett Consulting Group, Inc. a task order with a total potential value of over $5 million to provide support to Cyber Security and Communications (CS&C), External Affairs within DHS. This task order will provide assistance in the development, maintenance and implementation of the overall CS&C External Affairs plan, communications addendum to the National Cyber Security Instant Response Plan (NCSIPR), and the programmatic artifacts for an envisioned Joint Information Center (JIC) for cyber security. In addition, KCG will assist with the planning and establishment of special working groups, development of a General Accountability Office and Inspector General compliance program, legislative research and tracking, reviewing all external affairs related documents, preparing reviewing and analyzing public affairs talking points, testimony, press releases and guidance, and maintaining and improving the speakers bureau process.

Klett Consulting Group is one of over 200 Offerors that competed for the DHS Program Management opportunity within the Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDOVSB) Program Management, Administrative, Clerical, and Technical Services (PACTS) contract. “With an eye toward delivering value to our customer, we assembled a solid team to deliver innovative, cost effective and transformational capabilities to our DHS government customers,” said Mark Klett, President and CEO of Klett Consulting Group, Inc.

Klett Consulting Group is the prime contractor for this contract and assembled the team that includes Diversified Technology and Services Of Virginia, Inc. (DTSV) in Newport News, VA. This task order should complete work in 2016.

Established in 2002 and headquartered in Virginia Beach, Virginia, Klett Consulting Group, Inc.
